PER G.S.SINGHVI, CJ

This appeal is directed against order dated 01.03.2007 passed by the learned Single Judge in Contempt Case No.246 of 2006.

At the hearing, Shri M.Surender Rao, learned counsel for the appellants fairly stated that this appeal may be disposed of as infructuous because his clients have already complied with the direction given by the learned Single Judge. He, however, made a request that the Bench may direct the learned Single Judge to hear the main writ petition at an early date.

In view of the statement made by the learned counsel for the appellants, the Writ Appeal is disposed of as infructuous.

Insofar as the appellants prayer for issue of a direction to the learned Single Judge for early hearing of the writ petition is concerned, we deem it proper to observe that the appellants may file appropriate application before the Single Bench and persuade the learned Single Judge to hear their case out of turn.

As a sequel to dismissal of the writ petition as infructuous, WAMP No.585 of 2007 filed by the appellants for interim relief is disposed of as infructuous.
